PROFESSIONAL EMAIL DRAFTS - PART A

Introduction

This document provides two sample email drafts for students navigating professional communication. The examples below cover requesting an assignment extension from a professor and expressing interest in a summer internship.

Email 1: Requesting an Assignment Extension

Here's a template for a student emailing a professor to request an extension on an assignment:

Subject: Extension Request -Mrityunjay Kumar - [CSE0001] - DIGITAL LITERACY

Dear Professor ,

I am writing to respectfully request an extension for the CSE0001 assignment in your digital literacy course. The original due date is 4 March.

I am currently experiencing jaundice. This has made it difficult for me to dedicate the necessary time and focus to complete the assignment to the best of my ability.

I would be grateful if you would grant me an extension until 28 March. I am confident that with this extra time, I will be able to submit a high-quality piece of work. I have already completed the introductory part of the assignment.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I understand the importance of meeting deadlines and appreciate your understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Mrityunjay Kumar
